

On Sat. 19th November, 2011 Bob Keyte Award Winner, Bill Rangott, demonstrated how he makes his championship winning jewellery boxes. Bill discussed the whole process of making boxes, including where he gets his bits and pieces.

Bill showed an array of several different types of boxes and discussed the methods used in each type.

Dave Banister, our intrepid world traveller continues his tour.....

It was with regret that time beat me in Scotland but whilst in Glasgow obtained a Rail & Sail ticket that took me via train to Stranraer and by ferry to Belfast.

Three tours over four days....first was usual hop on hop off bus tour around the city, 2nd was a somewhat political tour, being The Black Taxi Tour taking in a lot of the areas still in conflict between the orange and the green which still divides this troubled part of the world. 3rd was a tour to the Giants Causeway taking in the North East Coast Line and small hamlets on this full-day history tour. After saying goodbye to newfound friends at my hostel, I moved down to Dublin in the South East and onto another tour throughout Sth Ireland which included backpacker accommodation for 7 nights. Our tour was called Paddy Wagon Bus Tours and we spent day 1 traversing across to the west coast to Galway.... the start of another unforgettable sojourn, taking in Kilkenny, Tipperary, Ring of Kerry, Cork, Cong village and finishing back in Dublin at the Guinness factory, which was another highlight of the tour. Another Rail & Sail ticket was purchased to take me to the Lakes district in England. But more of that later. Bye for now Dave Banister, xxx for the sheilas.

"WHAT CAN YOU DO WITH A 4 X 2 ?"

The judging of our 4x2 competition was held at the Santa Shop weekend at Montville and the winning entry came from Warne Wilson. Warne used an antique chair in his possession to create patterns for his Antique Chair. Several modifications had to be made to the original design to reduce the amount of wastage. Warne receives a 12 month subscription to Australian Wood Review for his efforts.

The expanding light fitting (nicknamed Tyrannosaurus Light) was created by Dick Graves to provide a moveable light for use in a workshop or over a barbeque.

The Dinner Tray was made by John Muller and was sliced and book matched from the Bunya Pine.

The Taj Mahal, made by Terry Maddison was inspired by a visit to the original. There were several hidden features such as the centre spire lifting off to reveal a jewel box.

The Twisting Stool, crafted by Max Barrenger was inspired by a stool on display at the Wood Design Centre in Launceston which featured timber and metal. This featured cold bent laminated legs and steam bent footrest with the seat made from wedges to reduce the timber usage.

Around The Shed This Month

Some of the boys from Care Cottage paid a visit.

The Elves in the Toy Dept are flat out finishing off the toys for the Salvo's to collect on Sun 17th.

Don Gratton from the Horseless Carriage Club came to the Club with a badly mangled piston and con rod and asked if we could make a trophy out of them to be presented perpetually as "The Hard Luck Award" to the member who had experienced the most trouble with his or her vintage vehicle. (One member this year has had the engine out of his car nine times!)

Ron Fishwick reminds us.....

 Its time to start putting your thinking caps on to produce entries for the Cooroy Interclub competition that is held at the beginning of May.

 Entries are required in the following categories...

 1 Woodturning

 2 General Woodwork (furniture, clocks etc)

 3 Carving

 4 Pyrography

 5 Intarsia/Fretwork

 6 Toymaking

 Lets make 2012 a successful one.
